

Beauty or scars, to me it's all the same

Marie

Capítulo 1

There's a girl looking at a mirror, all she can see is nothing but imperfection, she wonders why she isn't a bit slimmer, she's filled with guilt and fear of what could become her dinner, she starts skipping meals, because a friend told her that was the best way to become a winner.
She almost fainted in the middle of the class and she wouldn't accept a coke with ice, too much sugar and too many calories to count that she became the best student in basic Math.
That friend that told her to do this, was never her friend at all, I have to emphasize.
A nice girl came to her and said she was perfect the way she was, she didn't believe her and started to cry, she could no longer keep up.
The next morning we could see in the news a young girl had committed suicide.
